

KELLY FOUNDATION CONSTRUCTION AND ENGINEERING ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

ONE ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARD FOR $2,000

The Kelly Foundation Construction and Engineering Endowed Scholarship will be awarded to the student who meets the following eligibility criteria:

- Full-time degree-seeking undergraduate student majoring in either Construction Management or Civil Engineering.
- Must be a U.S. citizens, permanent residents or international students from Latin America and the Caribbean.
- Cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 at FIU or, if newly enrolled at FIU, at prior institutions attended.
- Must submit a resume.
- Must submit a one-page statement of career goals in a 300 to 400 word essay.
- Must submit a listing of involvement in extra-curricular school or community activities and/or job-related activities.

Scholarship may be renewed annually for up to three years provided that the recipient maintains the eligibility criteria and make satisfactory progress toward a degree.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY APRIL 22, 2016

Kelly Foundation Construction and Engineering Endowed Scholarship Application Form 2016

Please download this application from the OHL School of Construction web site <http://ohlsc.fiu.edu/important-information/scholarships/> and email to cminfo@eng.fiu.edu or bring the application packet to the OHL School in EC 2900.

Name:	_____
Panther ID:	_____
Address:	_____ _____
City, State, Zip:	_____
Telephone:	_____
e-mail:	_____

Please remember that your application form must be submitted with the following:

- Resume
- One page statement of career goals in a 300 to 400 word essay
- Listing of involvement in extra-curricular school or community activities and/or job-related activities
- Please attach an unofficial copy of your transcript.

Incomplete applications will not be considered for an award.
Deadline to submit application is Friday April 22, 2016.